Foreword

The band has stopped playing. The ballots are counted. The primary is won.

We are candidates for a high office in a great campaign. We must thank the V. I. P.'s and party workers who have helped us through the years of late hour lobbying and rallies. Now the junkets are over and the red tape is cut, so let us look once more at our souvenirs and relics before we set out in a bigger election, a tougher campaign.

CAUCUSES

Leaders' Club

OFFICERS: President, Sarah Hays; First Vice-President, Ann Morral; Second Vice-President, Judy Denti; Third Vice-President, Betsy Dawson; Secretary, Debbie Short; Treasurer, Emerson Berry; Adviser, Miss Margrett Schultz.

PURPOSE: to train potential leaders through service to the school and community by the promotion of world friendship.

To begin the program of Leaders' Club last August, members participated in an eye-check of pre-school children and also checked the eyes of kindergarten children. Two parties were held for Settlement House children and another was held at an Old Folks' Home. In addition to sponsoring three underprivileged families, Leaders' Club held its annual Canned Foods Drive, collecting a record number of 8532 cans. As a main money-making project Leaders' Club sold Christmas wrappings and cashew nuts during the holidays. An annual event was again held by Leaders Club for the new officers of all clubs.

K.E.Y.

OFFICERS: President, Debbie Munger; Vice-President, Carol Lee Stephens; Secretary, Betsy Dawson; Treasurer, Marcia Manning; Social Chairman, Carolyn McCarty; Service Chairman, Sharon Sullivan; Publicity Chairman, Mary Jane Vance; Adviser, Mrs. Betsy Burke.

PURPOSE: to perform service to the community and to provide social activities for K. E. Y. members.

Last Thanksgiving was made a time of happiness for some underprivileged family because K.E.Y. supplied them with Thanksgiving dinner. Serving a dinner at the adult civic center, Kinder Key caroling and an Easter project were also three of K.E.Y.'s worthwhile service projects.

"Crystal Christmas," the annual holiday formal sponsored by K.E.Y. and W.H.Y., was again a high spot of the year.

After three years as a major organization, K.E.Y. celebrated at the end of the year with a victory banquet for all club members.

OFFICERS: President, Lynne Shreiner; Vice-President, Theresa Brown; Secretary, Barb Brown; Treasurer, Mary Reuwee; Representative to Leaders' Club, Judy Hanna; Adviser, Mrs. Elizabeth Clifford.

PURPOSE: to enrich friendships not only through social activities but also through service.

Beginning a wonderful junior year, the members of W.H.Y. sponsored a very enjoyable dance at Holiday Hill near Delaware. The annual Christmas dance held jointly by K.E.Y. and W.H.Y. was "A Crystal Christmas" and a Miss W.H.Y. and her court were announced.

In addition to several service projects, W.H.Y. sponsored a Chinese orphan, Huang Lee Chung, and received several letters from him. Rounding out the year with a Father-Daughter Banquet, the members of W.H.Y. completed a well-organized program of activities.

A.I.M.

OFFICERS: President, Anita Folkerth; Vice-President, Susi Guthrie; Secretary, Anne Lynn; Treasurer, Jane Kerkering; Adviser, Mrs. Anne Christy.

PURPOSE: to increase friendship and responsibility through service to the community.

Following the example of previous classes, the sophomore girls organized a club and "aiming" for the sky, named their club A.I.M. Bake sales, as always, led the list of fund-raising projects. A spring dance was held in addition to a spread after a basketball game. A.I.M. members also sponsored a unique "girl auction," which was very popular.

A.I.M. concluded a very successful year with a banquet, new officers, and great plans for the girls in the black sweat-shirts.

Y-Teens

OFFICERS: President, Debbie Page; Vice-President, Claudia Gidcomb; Secretary, Marcia Manning; Treasurer, Carol Sain; Member at Large to Y.W.C.A., Lynn Houston; Representative to Leaders' Club, Ann Kreiger; Program Chairman, Peggy Erb; Social Chairman, Judy Denti; Service Chairman, Betsy Dawson; Publicity Chairman, Peggy Streeter; Worship Chairman, Sue Hague; World Fellowship Chairman, Mimi Lowery; Links Chairman, Pris Daugherty; Ways and Means Chairman, Sally Russel; Adviser, Mrs. Marilyn Howells.

PURPOSE: to provide service to the community and to the country in co-operation with the Y.W.C.A.

The best trophy of all, according to most Y-Teen members, is the one which the club won for having the best attendance for three consecutive years at "Fall Fantasy," the annual city-wide dance at Valley Dale.

Y-Teens began the year with a rally for sophomore girls at Holiday Hill where every "hillbilly" had an evening full of fun and food.

The coalition of Hi-Y and Y-Teens sponsored the traditional Thanksgiving and Easter assemblies and "Shipwreck Shindig." One of the highlights of the year was a joint meeting of the two clubs where boy-girl relations were discussed.

Through its many service projects and its contributions to worthwhile organizations, Y-Teens showed that their goal is service.

Hi-Y

OFFICERS: President, Bob Selfe; Vice-President, Dick Borel; Secretary, Curt Roettig; Treasurer, Fred Waltz; Sergeant-at-Arms, Tom Specht; Representative to Leaders' Club, Dick Dreiman; Mascots, Jack Newlon and Bill Berwanger; Adviser, William Dudrow.

PURPOSE: to provide clean sportsmanship and fellowship for all junior and senior boys.

Hi-Y first caught the public eye this year when its members hurried up and down the stadium bleachers selling football programs they had compiled and printed. The winter program was scored by the entrance of two teams in the Columbus Hi-Y Basketball League and participation in the Columbus Hi-Y Youth in Government Day. With spring came the eagerly awaited faculty-Hi-Y basketball game. Active in school affairs, Hi-Y and Y-Teens sponsored both the Thanksgiving and the Easter assemblies.

Hi-Y ended the year with a highly successful fund-raising drive for the Polio Foundation.

OFFICERS: President, Sarah Aplin; Vice-President, Sarah Hays; Secretary, Kay Baker; Treasurer, Debbie Munger; Business Manager, Mary Lee Eigensee; Advisers, Mrs. Helen Tanner and Richard Hoskins.

PURPOSE: to learn about the opportunity in teaching, to cultivate the qualities essential to a good teacher, to study the lives of great teachers, and to foster the development of student leadership.

One-hundred-ten F.T.A. members spent one period a week observing and participating in the activities of the elementary and junior high school classes by taking advantage of the cadet teaching program.

Teaching the blind, deaf, physically handicapped, and mentally handicapped were some of the areas of special education which were emphasized in regular meetings. A special field trip gave members an opportunity to observe how one group of handicapped children is taught.

Apples and candy bars were presented to the high school faculty during American Education Week and corsages were given to the supervising teachers in May.

The year's activities were climaxed by the traditional Rose Breakfast on May 14.

OFFICERS: President, Susie Loving; Vice-President, Nancy Furste; Corresponding Secretary, Jane Lewis; Recording Secretary, Carol Lee Stephens; Treasurer, Judy Graziani; Representative to Leaders' Club, Joan Gray; Adviser, Mrs. L. S. Pettit.

PURPOSE: to interest girls in health and in a career in nursing or some other phase of medicine.

Giving parties for various groups and filling Christmas boxes for the mental patients at the Columbus State Hospital were the major service projects of F.N.A. Each monthly meeting included a speaker on some field of medicine to inform the girls about the many facets of medical work. The girls took two field trips this year, including one to the Cerebral Palsy Clinic.

Although F.N.A. is primarily an educational group, it sponsored a very successful dance and had a mother-daughter tea this past year.

Inter Nos

OFFICERS: President, Fred McGavran; Vice-President, Dick Kinney; Secretary, Mary Reuwee; Treasurer, Steve Goscin; Representative to Leaders' Club, Debbie Short; Adviser, Miss Margrett Schultz.

PURPOSE: to stimulate interest in the classical civilization of Greece and Rome; to maintain a scholarship program for a young man studying to be a Latin teacher; and to provide out-of-class activities for third and fourth year Latin students.

As the name of the club indicates, Inter Nos is a tightly knit group. All third and fourth year Latin students are members of Inter Nos. This club meets monthly either in a member's home or at the school. The year's program included a breakfast meeting, a pot-luck supper enlivened by a visit by the Muse of Prophecy, and an open meeting at which Dr. Harold Yochum, President of Capital University, was the speaker. At Christmas the members exchanged Latin Christmas cards and sang Latin Christmas carols. A candy sale was held and a movie was shown during the winter to raise money. The year ended with the annual sophomore party at which underclassmen were invited to continue with Latin and to join Inter Nos.

Le Cercle Francais

OFFICERS: President, Lucy Anderson; First Vice-President, Peggy Erb; Second Vice-President, Mike Burnett; Third Vice-President, Paul Drake; Secretary, Judy Denti; Treasurer, Sarah Aplin; Representative to Leaders' Club, Ralph Bresler; Editor-in-Chief, Marjorie Watson; Advisers, Mlle Lorita Ewing and Mme Elizabeth Clifford.

PURPOSE: to provide an additional opportunity for interested French students to become better acquainted with French people and their culture.

The next best thing to Paris? Le cercle francais, mais oui! The agenda for each monthly meeting often includes slides of France, guest speakers, or games. At "Noel" the club entertained their parents with a special program of skits and carols. Banquets are a favorite of the club. Each year a French Banquet is held at the Ohio Student Union and is open to all French students; in addition, French Club has its own banquet with typical French food! This ambitious club also boasted a newspaper, Le Dernier Cri.

Club El Dorado

OFFICERS: President, Carol Stephens; Vice-President, Mary Jane Powell; Secretary, Louesa Callahan; Treasurer, Carol Liebermann; Advisers, Mrs. Gloria Ecker and Richard Beery.

PURPOSE: to create a better understanding of the Spanish speaking people by making their language and customs more familiar.

"One, two, cha-cha-cha" might have been heard coming from any Spanish Club meeting. As a part of their study of Spanish customs this year, Spanish Club members learned the cha-cha, the mambo, and the samba. Publishing a Spanish handbook also helped the members gain a better understanding of the Spanish people themselves.

The U. A. branch of the Spanish Relations Department sponsored a Spanish child. To finance this project, the senoritas in the club baked and sold Thanksgiving pies! This project taught the girls that pie dough stuck on the ceiling can't be sold at a profit.

CLUB

OFFICERS: President, Mary Davis; Vice-President, Susie Johnson; Secretary, Patty Lintner; Treasurer, Julie Johnson; Adviser, Miss Bernice Rea.

PURPOSE: to give service to the high school library.

Ever wonder how books get back on shelves? Who writes those dreaded over-due slips? Library Club pleads guilty! Each period will find members of Library Club working at the desk, checking out books or collecting fines. Many times meetings provide learning experiences. For example, there are questions and answer sessions supplemented by food and chatter. From what members learn about the library at those meetings, it becomes possible for them to help their fellow students. Library Club has had several money-raising projects, one a very novel idea -- a record sale! For February a dance is being planned.

Pub Club

OFFICERS: President, Sandy Hughes; Vice-President, Phyllis Knoderer; Secretary, Sue Nelson; Treasurer, Sherry Fishel; Social Chairman, Lynn Lowery; Representative to Leaders' Club, Priscilla Daugherty; Adviser, Hugh Stumbo.

PURPOSE: to promote school spirit by making badges and posters for each game.

As a vital part of our school's activities, Pub Club provided all the badges and posters for the games. These badges were made at meetings held on Thursday evenings. Although the meetings were somewhat riotous, the badges were clever and well made.

As fund-raising functions, the club sponsored two dances following games and had several bake sales. Ending the year with a picnic, Pub Club brought to a close a very successful year.

Festo

OFFICERS: President, Pam Farris; Vice-President, Molly Maidlow; Secretary, Sue Nelson; Treasurer, Lynne Lowery; Adviser, Hugh Stumbo.

PURPOSE: to exhibit art and encourage its appreciation throughout the school.

Expressing their enormous enthusiasm for the world of art, Festo sponsored several art exhibits. Among these was the Amateur Art Exhibit at Lane Avenue Shopping Center during the summer. In the spring the Festo members displayed their own talents at the annual spring exhibit. Festo was also responsible for the art displays in the showcases.

During the Christmas holiday, Festo out-did itself when it came to decorations around the school. The center hall mural and the windows inside were no less unique than the imaginative Christmas tree outside.

Newcomers Club

OFFICERS: President, Marcia Manning; Vice-President, Debbie Munger; Secretary, Judy Denti; Treasurer, Bob Selfe; Adviser, Mrs. Maryln Dudrow.

PURPOSE: to welcome all new Arlington students and to help and advise these students at all times.

This year, as in the past, each member of Newcomers acted as the "big brother" or "big sister" of a bewildered new high school student. All club activities were directed toward those students. The club started the year with a Luau for ALL students. Direction posters were made to help orient new (and some old) students. At a special meeting for the newcomers, the presidents of all the various clubs discussed the club's purpose and program. As a service to the ninth graders, four members spoke at the junior high school on senior high activities. Later on in the year a dance was planned for April.

Charm Club

OFFICERS: President, Karen Thorne; Vice-President, Claudia Gidcomb; Secretary, Carol Swanson; Treasurer, Gwyn Baker; Representative to Leaders' Club, Donna Thomas; Adviser, Mrs. Woolpert.

PURPOSE: to prepare the girls for the future through experiences in homemaking, social activities and service.

Open to any present or past home economics student, Charm Club presents a widely varied program ranging from the annual field trip to the Columbus State School to a Boys' Pie-Baking Contest. The highlight of the year was the annual Golddiggers' Dance when kings were chosen and prizes were awarded to the girls who constructed the cleverest corsages for their dates. Two smorgasbords were held this year, the first as a dinner meeting in October and the second a dessert after the style show given by the sewing classes in May.

In the final analysis, it may well be stated that the many activities of Charm Club provided the girls with a good background for homemaking.

Science Club

OFFICERS: President, Nick Krier; First Vice-President, Brian O'Riordan; Second Vice-President, John Neer; Secretary, George Evans; Treasurer, Jim Moor; Advisers, Robert H. Cavins and members of the science department.

PURPOSE: to arouse and advance scientific interests in the high school.

The Science Club program consists of a series of guest speakers -- each speaker representing his own particular field of science. A good example is the October meeting at which Richard Goldthwaite, a physiologist, spoke and showed slides of the Antarctic. Throughout the year other speakers and even field trips were in the offing. A highlight of the year was a joint meeting with other high school science clubs.

Radio Club

OFFICERS: President, William Stacy; Vice-President, Michael Izzie; Secretary-Treasurer, Richard Fusek; Adviser, Leon Bowman.

PURPOSE: to assist students in getting started in amateur radio as a hobby and to encourage them to increase their technical knowledge of electronics and help them to improve their operating techniques while on the air.

Radio Club meets every two weeks in the physics laboratory. The formal meetings consist of technical discussions by members, demonstrations of equipment and instruction in operating procedures. A code class for beginners is conducted each fall which enables them to prepare for the taking of the Federal Communications Commission's examination for an operator's license.

A complete amateur radio station is maintained by the club where licensed members may communicate by code or by voice with other amateurs all over the world.

Business Education Club

OFFICERS: President, Maureen Lukemire; Vice-President, Karen Hobbs; Secretary, Nancy Jones; Treasurer, Linda Holdren; Advisers, Miss Katherine Glick, Miss Annette Jackson and Miss Janice Stewart.

PURPOSE: to develop competent business leadership; to create more interest in the choice of business occupations; to participate in service projects for the school and community; and to develop character and citizenship through club participation.

The members of Business Education Club bravely manned their typewriters and typed through sheaves of forms and materials for the high school clubs, faculty and the community. As prospective office workers, especially secretaries, these members learned invaluable tips on office technique, diplomacy, and ethics through an educational but enjoyable program of films, speakers, and field trips. Members of Business Education Club have also learned many ideas about applying for those precious summer jobs -- any jobs for that matter!

Discussion Club

OFFICERS: President, Brian O'Riordan; Vice-President-Secretary, Karl Schaffer; Adviser, J. Fred Bunte.

PURPOSE: to provide an organization and a meeting place for students to discuss any phase of any subject of their choice.

Discussion Club rolled verbally forward on the brink of the recent Presidential election. Words flew when the threat of Communism was brought up and a discussion of famous short stories aided many seniors frantically preparing their short story reviews. Insecurity was a choice subject and members prowled among their tensions and frustrations as the armchair orators talked their way through a highly successful year.

Dramatics Club

OFFICERS: President, Tom Specht; Vice-President, Mary Jane Vance; Secretary, Debby Berry; Treasurer, Phil Kuehl; Publicity Chairman, Sandy Downs; Adviser, Miss Charlotte Kelly.

PURPOSE: to increase interest in the theatre by giving students the opportunity to utilize their dramatic talents and skills, whether off stage or on.

In Dramatics Club most attention is focused on the two plays to be presented each fall and spring. During November of 1960 a classic but hilarious comedy, YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU, by Kaufman and Hart was selected -- a very successful play that ran two nights with Tibbie Pearson and Dana Gire in the leading roles. Sandy Downs and Frank Booth were memorable in the character roles they played. In the spring the club produced a play, which was not selected at the time that the NORWESTER went to press.

When Dramatics Club was not in rehearsal the club met to hear guest speakers.

Varsity A

OFFICERS: President, Phil Kuehl; Vice-President, Tom Chown; Secretary, Bill Berwanger; Treasurer, Bob Miller; Sergeant-at-Arms, Jerry Truster; Advisers, James Burke, Pete Corey, Frederick Eickelberger, Jerry Hooper, Marv Moorehead.

PURPOSE: to help other clubs with their projects and provide a letterman's club for the athletes of the school.

Varsity A is one of the fastest growing, fastest moving clubs in the school. Primarily a service organization, this club lends its manpower to other clubs to aid them with their projects. The lettermen helped with Co-Rec Night, provided transportation for the collection of canned foods by Leaders' Club, and furnished parade marshals for the Homecoming parade. Varsity A held its own dance during the winter to raise money for its service projects.

When the going gets tough
the tough gets going

Student Council

OFFICERS: President, George Wolfe; Vice-President, Jack Newlon; Secretary, Susie Sharer; Treasurer, Pete Tomasulo; Adviser, Nick Moore.

PURPOSE: to give the students of the school a chance to have a say in the activities of the school by having a fair, representative student government.

Under the guidance of Nick Moore Student Council met twice a month to discuss and plan various school functions. In this capacity Student Council could act as a mediator between faculty and the student body. The Council was also responsible for the supply shop where snacks and supplies could be purchased. This year, as previously, a school directory was compiled and sold to the student body.

At the end of a successful year new Student Council officers were selected amidst great enthusiasm and friendly rivalry.

Would Anyone like to donate a postage meter to the Arlingtonian staff? This question might be asked by any of the staff members who helped stamp, fold, and address six hundred Arlingtonians over Christmas vacation. When they could not distribute the papers because a snow storm closed the high school, the valiant staff hurriedly mailed them to subscribers.

The imaginative staff's Christmas present to the school was a special photo page in the holiday issue. Other new ideas in the paper this year were a different page layout, a special feature column, and "Fenton's Footnotes," written by Bob Miller. The Thanksgiving issue paid tribute to the honored Turkey King and his court, who were treated to a full-course turkey dinner with all the trimmings. The final and biggest issue of the year was dedicated to the senior class. Written and edited by the senior staff members, this edition is one the class of 1961 will always remember.

In an effort to keep the students informed of the political scene, the alert reporters covered the Columbus rally for Nixon during the compaign. Other Arlington "firsts" included the first place trophies won by Dana Gire and Bob Brown at the Central Ohio High School Press Club and the play directed by Bob Brown and Marcia Farr, which was presented before the Journalism Association of Ohio Schools.

After struggling with an old, wornout typewriter, the staff invested the paper's hard-earned money in a new typewriter, which quickly became Mrs. Joyce Ricketts' pride and joy. Near catastrophe occurred when Ray Roop inadvertently dropped the prized possession on the floor. The comment from the journalism class who heard the crash? "You just bought a new (!) typewriter?"

The copy desk has not only proved useful but also dangerous since it falls apart quite easily. Many people who mistook it for a bench have suddenly found themselves on the floor. Several good staff members were almost lost in this way!

The business problems of the paper were handled by Ellis Lutz and his business staff, who continually strove to add a little black ink to the red in the ledger. To recruit subscriptions, a free paper was given to the whole student body in September. The climax to the drive was the traditional Arlingtonian assembly where Harland Randolph entertained the school with his interpretations of poetry set to music.

This year's staff have discovered many of the pitfalls in newspaper work. But in spite of meetings which even the editor admits were "notoriously hectic", the Arlingtonian, under the leadership of Mrs. Joyce Ricketts, the editorial adviser, was presented to the students on schedule all year.

During the political campaign, Uppey Arlington issued a formal protest to the Arlingtonian for its failure to cover his campaign in full. Uppey later dropped the charge, stating that the Arlingtonian in its quest for an impartial press had devoted equal space to all candidates.

Pressure Group

Above is the status quo of the Norwester staff after a year of brow-beating and knockout fights victored by "Ingo" Will and "Champ" Randall.

During the summer, editor-in-chief Alice Carson brought the two natively opposing forces -- staff and advisers -- together in numerous primaries to nominate a theme. Casting sentimentality aside, the staff joined forces behind a political theme and Uppey was born.

Many non-peaceful all-out altercations took place in room 116 on Wednesday afternoon during the fiscal (?) year 1960-61. Factions "pro" and "con" parleyed long and hotly concerning "big wigs" and "v. i. p.'s," two versus three colored pictures, and whether or not we should include sayings for teachers and a class history. Finally, the die-hards deserted their party and a truce was declared -- the flag of surrender went up.

Editor-in-chief Alice Carson and associate editor-in-chief Claudia Gidcomb kept the staff working almost at the pace required by the pressure group so that no fatal casualties resulted. Many of the staff members are suffering some serious ailments, however. For example, Mary Lee Eigensee became accustomed to insomnia and hands without fingers!

Stomps Staff

To photography editor, Peggy Erb, a whole new world of blackmail, cajolery, and chicanery came into focus. She became a full-fledged politician during her apprenticeship in the photography world. Ably assisting Peggy was Karen Thorne, whose pinking shears saw active duty in the casual department.

Leading the abstract department were Debbie Page and Sandy Hughes. Ingenious Debbie arranged and shifted squares; artistic Sandy turned out Uppey's by the dozen.

The literary corps, headed by Editor Ann Morral -- Sarah Aplin, Demi Badger, Jane Mills, and Fred McGavran -- have developed a violent distaste for writing articles . . . too many of 'em you know.

In the field of economics Ralph Bresler, Ken Wears and Tim Wilder wielded the stick!

Betsy Dawson and Jack Newlon headed girls' and boys' sports respectively.

The members of the Norwester Staff beg the forebearance of their readers. Uppey and his political party were created in a spirit of whimsey -- no offense intended.

P. S. The Norwester staff hereby nominates Miss Randall as Yearbook Adviser and Outspoken Authority on Political Satire of the year. We salute you!

The band stepped off into a spectacular fall season with a week of practice and marching at band camp. Every school morning saw the marchers rehearse the week's show from 8:00 to 9:30. The tempo of pep rallies and the Homecoming parade was increased by the band, and led by Drum Majors Kirby Wyatt and Bob Rehl, the instrumentalists played at every home and away football game. The band added to its list of guest appearances by marching in the Circleville Pumpkin Show, playing for a Columbus Colts' and a charity football game, both at Jet Stadium, and performing at the premier of Cinerama in downtown Columbus. The band filled its coffers by selling six-thousand bars of chocolate in a record-breaking two weeks. Looking back on the performance-packed fall program, Director Robert Ginther and the bandsmen agreed that it was their most thrilling and spectacular season.

The concert band is the marching band demobilized. It played at the Christmas concert and at many assemblies and school functions. The instrumentalists put on their own show in the spring and a major trip was planned to write finis to a highly successful year.

The Bear-A-Tones, our dance band, is an organization for boys who like to play popular and progressive music. The dance band took part in the talent show, the spring band show, and played at school dances and parties throughout the Columbus area.

Recognized today as the largest and one of the finest high school choirs in the state of Ohio, the 1960-61, 212 voice Senior Concert Choir has enjoyed another outstanding year. This marks the tenth year for the Concert Choir since its beginning under the direction of its founder and present director, Herbert S. Yenser.

In one of its busiest years the Choir presented over twenty-five programs including outside guest and television appearances -- starting the year with an appearance at Veterans' Memorial for the Ohio Food Show and ending the year with the annual opening of the swimming pool at Scioto Country Club. Other appearances included the First Fall Festival of Song, the annual Christmas Yuletide Festival, and three Candlelight dinner engagements at the Scioto Country Club. Downtown engagements included singing at the Neil House for the Columbus Bar Association and the Warren-Teed Christmas Dinner. The Choir also appeared at the Deshler Hilton Hotel for the State Convention of County Commissioners. The Choir sang at the State Capitol building during the Christmas season and for the first time sang for the servicemen at Lockbourne Air Base.

In January the Choir sponsored Fred Waring's piano-duo team of Hornibrook and Webb. The Ohio Chamber of Commerce honored the organization by inviting it to sing for a special dinner -- an event of February -- to which all the state legislators and their wives were invited. The Choir also presented a program to the downtown Lions Club during this month. In March the choir played a major role in the annual talent production which played to four capacity houses. This year the Concert Choir made its fourth appearance for the Knights Templar Easter Sunrise Service held at the Palace Theater. Also during April it entertained the Rotary Club at the Deshler Hilton Hotel.

The highlight of the year for the Choir was the tenth annual Spring Choral Festival given in May to capacity houses.

At the time of the printing of the Norwester, the Choir was exploring the possibilities of an exchange program with another school or of a choir trip in the spring comparable to the last choir trip, which included the Kentucky Derby.

Eighty-two seniors, with the commencement singing, bade farewell to Senior Choir. May the Choir's motto, "What thou keepest is lost, What thou givest is forever thine" serve them well in the years ahead.

Summer Recreation

The Upper Arlington High School Recreation Center's first summer in existence was a great success. Membership exceeded seven hundred at the end of August. The committee tried to plan interesting and varied programs. Tuesday was movie night, and on Thursday the gym was open for co-recreation. The cafeteria was open at all times with art work, games, and a juke-box for entertainment. Saturday night's programs ranged from a semi-formal dance to a trip to Zoo Park. Marvin Moorehead was the faculty adviser and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Turner were supervisors each night throughout the summer.

Officers for the first summer recreation program were Jack Newlon, Alice Carson, George Wolfe, Claudia Gidcomb, Bob Selfe, Sally Russel, and Pris Daugherty.

Ranking In The State

The results of the Senior Scholarship Test show that this year's graduating class won honors on state, district, and county levels. The scholarship team, composed of the top forty percent of the senior class, took this test in January as an indication of their achievement in five areas: English, history, science, mathematics, and reading comprehension.

Nick Krier led the team, receiving honorable mention in the state and placing second in the district and first in the county. Sharon Anderson received honorable mention in the state, was fourth in the girls' district divisional and ninth in the county; Jay Pollack also received honorable mention in the state, placing ninth in the district and second in the county. Mark Kuhner received honorable mention in the state and county and placed twenty-second in the district. Seven persons received honorable mention in the state, district and county: Mary Lou Cravens, Marty Fergus, James McMaster, Brian O'Riordan, Ray Roop, Robert Walker and Frank Godbey. Fourteen received honorable mention in the district and county; thirteen received honorable mention in the county.

Because Quill and Scroll is primarily an international society to honor student journalists, meetings are rather limited but important. They include a joint meeting with the Arlingtonian Staff and the journalism class and a very impressive and significant initiation ceremony. Qualifications are rigid: the prospective candidate must have had a specified amout of work in the field of journalism; he must be in the upper third of his class; he must be certified by Miss G. Ellen Mann.

As evidence of their scholastic ability, seniors Nick Krier and Jane Mills received certificates of merit as finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Test. They were among the one-sixteenth of one percent of all high school seniors who competed in the test. The awards are made in the form of four-year scholarships of one hundred and fifteen hundred dollars presented by National Merit Scholarship Corporation. This test was available March of 1960 to all juniors.

Each spring the new members of National Honor Society are chosen on the basis of their scholarship, character,, leadership and service. The upper twenty percent of the senior class and the upper ten percent of the junior class are eligible for membership. From this number ten percent of the senior class and five percent of the junior class are installed in the Upper Arlington chapter of the national organization. In May, the formal induction ceremony was presented, for the second year, in an assembly for the whole student body.

The primary project of the club is the operation of the book store, a great service to the school.

Head coach Marv Moorehead and a hot August sun greeted ninety-nine eager prospective football players on their first day of practice. Since the annual preview was discontinued this year, the Bears had only three weeks to prepare for the opening game. The pre-season practices cost U. A. heavily as Co-Captain Jerry Truster broke his wrist in a scrimmage against North.

Arlington's ability to capitalize on Lancaster's errors provided the Bears with their first victory. Interceptions by Mike Mandt and Scott Condit, a recovered fumble by Bob Selfe, plus fine offensive performances by Ron Clawson, Bill Anthony, and Phil Kuehl allowed U. A. to outplay completely the Golden Gales to the tune of 20-7.

The South High Bulldogs provided the next opposition for the fast-rising Bears. Although they were behind for a short time (7-6 early in the second quarter) Arlington's powerful line and the bull-like runs of Bill Anthony gave U. A. an easy 36-7 victory. A 21-yard aerial from Bill Beebe to Phil Kuehl supplied the Bears with the necessary margin. Three South fumbles and a blocked field goal were also instrumental in this win.

A story-book ending gave Arlington fans and players their biggest thrill of the year -- a 22-20 victory at Newark. The Wildcats, usually among the top teams in the state, were thought to be one of U. A.'s toughest opponents -- this assumption proved to be correct. Bill Beebe and Curt Roettig combined to score fourteen points in the first three quarters, while the Ross-Applegate duo produced twenty points for Newark in the same period of time. With only moments remaining the Bears began their 45-yard drive. A few plays later the ball rested on the 18-yard line and only 10 seconds remained in the game. Sophomore quarterback Bill Robb faded back to pass and hit Ron Clawson for the touchdown. Roettig battered over tackle for the winning two points. Unfortunately, the victory did not come without a heavy price. Senior end Tom Specht received a serious head injury and was lost to the team for the rest of the season.

Arlington appeared somewhat stale and dull during the first half at Bexley. The Bears exchanged punts with the Lions during much of the first two quarters. With eleven seconds remaining in the half, Keith Nichols kicked a 15-yard field goal, giving the Bears a 3-0 lead. U. A. seemed a completely different team as they began the third quarter. They recovered a fumble on the Lions' seven-yard line and Anthony scored two plays later. Ron Clawson added two more touchdowns in the final period, giving the Bears a 23-0 win. All of the action was not confined to the gridiron as Bexley and Arlington students engaged in a slight "rumble" during the game.

The Bears downed their next opponent, Worthington, by a score of 14-8. Curt Roettig and Bill Anthony provided the touchdowns. The latter's came as the climax to an 85-yard drive in the closing minutes of the game. Both teams displayed outstanding defensive units, which made for an extremely hard-fought contest. This game was marked by a remarkable show of enthusiasm from the Arlington fans, cheering the team out of the huddle on the final drive.

With five straight victories tucked away, the Bears faced Urbana in what proved to be the C.B.L. title game. A standing-room only crowd witnessed the 12-7 Homecoming loss. Although the Hillclimbers had a host of fine offensive backs, it was their clutch defensive performance that spelled doom for the Bears. Arlington's offensive machine was bogged down within the 15-yard line three times. Early in the first quarter a vicious tackle caused an Arlington fumble on their 19-yard line. This unfortunate break allowed Urbana to score its first touchdown several plays later. The third quarter again brought the Hillclimbers across U. A.'s goal. Geoff Kabealo's one-yard plunge gave Arlington fans one of their few moments of joy. The Bears made a desperate attempt to score in the closing moments, but it was cut short by another fumble.

The Bears, playing their second game in five days, rebounded remarkably from their initial loss by downing Delaware 44-0. U. A. scored on the second play from scrimmage on a Burnett to Waltz aerial covering 55 yards. From this point on there was no stopping the fired-up Bears. Curt Roettig and Ron Clawson each scored two touchdowns and Bill Anthony added the final one. Ray Rogers, U. A.'s dynamic center, surprised fans and coaches alike by snagging a Delaware kickoff and returned it ten yards.

Arlington's defensive unit, spearheaded by Geoff Kabealo, Dick Springer, and Dennie McKee, played the major role in the 14-0 win over arch-rival Grandview. The Bears were able to sustain two 51-yard drives, one in the first quarter and the other in the last, for their two touchdowns. Geoff Kabealo's booming punts continually pulled U. A. out of tight situations.

A big first half lead of 27-6 aided the Bears in their victory over last year's champion, Whitehall. A Dad's night crowd witnessed a fine offensive showing, featuring fine runs by Phil Kuehl and Ron Clawson. A sight never to be forgotten was Bob "Lightning" Caesar picking up a fumble and racing 30 yards to paydirt. As the final gun sounded, the Bears totaled 34, Whitehall 14.

All-C.B.L. halfback Dick Nethers proved to be the thorn in Arlington's side as Mt. Vernon pinned a 12-7 loss (a very unlucky score -- note Urbana) on the Bears. Arlington, staying on the ground this very cold night, could not get its offense moving against the fine Yellow Jackets.

The season's activities were brought to a climax at the annual Fall Sports Banquet. Dick Springer and Geoff Kabealo were named to succeed Co-Captains Jerry Truster and Bill Anthony. Outstanding player awards were given to Mike Mandt, Geoff Kabealo, Bill Anthony, and Ray Rogers.

Tom Specht received the Tri-Village Most Valuable Team Member Award.

The Bears placed an almost unbelievable number of six members on the All-C.B.L. squad. Bob Caesar, Ray Rogers, Bill Anthony, Ron Clawson, Jerry Truster, and Geoff Kabealo were selected for this honor.

Guard Bob Caesar was further honored by being named to the first unit of the U.P.I., All-Ohio team. He also received an invitation to participate, along with other all-state players, in an annual charity game next August in Canton.

On behalf of the NORWESTER staff and the student body, we would like to congratulate the players and coaches of this year's team for the exciting moments they gave us and the fine record which they compiled.

Arlington's reserve football, under the leadership of coach Jim Burke, compiled an undefeated record of 7-0. These seven victories coupled with ten straight from the previous two seasons, gave the reserve gridders an admirable string of seventeen in a row.

This year's highlight occurred in the game with Worthington. Although the score would not necessarily indicate it, the Bears faced their most formidable opponent. Arlington, trailing 8-0 as the fourth quarter began, managed to score a touchdown plus a 2-point conversion to beat the Cardinals while two minutes had elapsed. The Bears connected on a 65-yard pass play to the 2-yard line with fifty seconds remaining in the game. Dave Stewart crashed over for the winning margin. Worthington took to the air in a vain effort to regain their lead, but Dan Rupp intercepted a pass and returned it 50 yards for the final tally, giving the "Rubes" a hard-earned 22-8 win.

Congratulations to the coach and team for a very fine season.

CAPTAIN JACK NEWLON

At the basketball banquet at the end of '59-69 season, Jack Newlon was named captain of the 1960-61 basketball team. The new captain received the Walter B. Heischman trophy as the most valuable player. He was also named to the all-C.B.L. team.

Actual preparation for the season got under way at the first practice on November 1. After the final cuts were made, the team settled down to work.

The curtain fell heavily on the February 25 premier at Gahanna. The Lions had one game already under their belts and used the experience to squeak past the Golden Bears by three points. Big Jim Schaffer dumped in 30 points to lead his team to the narrow 57 to 54 victory.

Jack Newlon previewed his offensive prowess with 20 points in the losing effort. The starting lineup at the beginning of the season were seniors Jack Newlon and Tom Chown, along with juniors Dave Peck, Emerson Berry, and Ron Rudolph.

On the following week the Bears started their winning streak. The game at Bexley was tied at 38 all with only four minutes left. Coach Jim Burke made some defensive alterations that stopped the Lions in their tracks. Newlon collected six straight points to put the Bears out of their opponent's reach. They went on to a 44 to 40 win in the first League encounter.

On the following night Arlington played host to Hilliards. The visitors made a real go of it and held the lead through the first three periods. Arlington managed to take a one-point lead 40 to 39 at the start of the final quarter. It was anybody's ball game through the last eight minutes until Newlon put in a layup to win the game with less than a minute to go. It was Jack's 21st point of the evening and was enough to give his team a 51 to 49 victory.

The West High Cowboys were the next victim, being roped and tied to the tune of 75 to 57. Newlon found the range for 33 more points, giving him 66 for the weekend. With a 29-point lead in the third quarter, Arlington fans got their first look at the second string.

Arlington's next two games were with Urbana and Grandview, with whom they shared the top berth in the C.B.L. Urbana, thinking three was a crowd, disposed of Arlington 55 to 49. Newlon put in 22 points while holding All-Stater Gail Evans to only 9. Then, Arlington, lonesome for company in second place beat Grandview 54 to 44.

The Golden Bears ended the year on a golden tone with an 86 to 26 victory over winless Delaware on December 30. In this game Newlon hit for 29, three more points than the entire Delaware team.

The new year started off with a home game against Whitehall. Arlington took the lead and held on to the finish. Bill Beebe and Newlon had 18 points apiece for high honors as the Bears won 60 to 42.

Shaker Heights came to Arlington on the next night only to go back home with a defeat. It was a see-saw battle all the way, but the gold and black came out on top 41 to 39.

Mt. Vernon was next to suffer Arlington's blow. The Yellow Jackets were stung 67 to 41. Ron Rudolph turned in his best total of the season with 21 points.

As the season moved into the second round, it looked like a title race between Arlington and Urbana. The Hillclimbers were undefeated and Arlington had only one loss, that to Urbana. Grandview was out of the picture in third place. Bexley took a 59 to 37 lashing but held Newlon to only 8 points. Dave Peck picked up the slack with 19. The key to Arlington's success was the ability of any one of the starters to back up the efforts of another. Chown, Peck, Berry, Selfe, Rudolph, Berwanger, or Beebe could always be depended upon when the pressure was high.

Worthington took their second turn and failed as Arlington stretched its win streak to seven on a 58 to 49 victory. Then Dave Peck injured his shoulder in this game and was lost to the team for the remainder of the season. Then came another match with rival Grandview, who never goes down easily. The Bobcats came from behind in the first quarter to take a half-time lead of 26 to 18. Joe and John Argenbright played havoc with Arlington's defense, but the Bears came back to tie it up 36-all at the start of the final period. It was nip and tuck all the way, but the "Tewksbury Terror" dropped in a jump shot with four seconds left to give his team the 54-52 margin.

After this big hurdle the Bears coasted to the finish line for a showdown with Urbana. Arlington got past Whitehall 57 to 50, and downed Mt. Vernon 75 to 49 on the next night. Then there was a chance to catch their breath at Delaware 71 to 46 before the final judgment at Urbana. Newlon got 30 more points against the Panthers to keep a firm grip on the C.B.L. scoring lead.

Most of the seats were gone by six o'clock in the Urbana gymnasium. A turnaway crowd was on hand to witness the showdown. Arlington needed a victory to share the crown with the Hillclimbers. If Urbana won, they were sole owners.

The Bears launched a 16 to 8 first quarter lead, but Urbana quickly unraveled it and ended the half with a 34 to 26 lead. They scored 26 points in the second quarter and Arlington trailed behind ten points throughout the last half. The game ended in a 72 to 54 disaster with Gail Evans and Don Harkins supplying the one-two punch for the Hillclimbers with 22 and 23 points. Newlon had 24 for Arlington and Beebe hit 13.

At the end of the regular season the team had compiled the best record for an Arlington team since 1949, when the squad had a 15-3 slate compared to this year's 17-4.

Jack Newlon was named to the all-C.B.L. team for the second year and again received the Heischman trophy. Jack set a new C.B.L. scoring record with 332 points and Bill Beebe made the C.B.L. second team.

Attention then turned to the Fairgrounds Coliseum for the District Tournament. In the first game Arlington got a big surprise from a determined Delaware team. In the third meeting of the two schools the Panthers wanted the charm. The score, going into the last quarter, was 37 to 36. The lead had changed hands 18 times, but with only four minutes left Emerson Berry put the Bears on top to stay. Ron Rudolph was high-point man with 14.

A 61 to 51 win over Aquinas set the stage for the crucial third meeting with Grandview. The gifted Grandview gang scored easily as they slipped past Arlington 52 to 51 in a real hat chewer. Arlington was on top 51 to 47 with a minute to go but the Bobcats' two (Argan) bright stars closed the gap and Dave Fink put in the clincher with a foul shot.

The first mention of the 1961-62 season was made at the banquet on February 16. Dave Peck and Emerson Berry were announced as co-captains. Peck, Berry, and Rudolph will be back to claim their starting positions next year. Bob Snyder and Tom Mattingly will also be returning from the varsity squad.

Reserve Basketball

First year coach Fred Eickelberger led his reserve basketball squad to a very respectable 10-7 finish. The Bears finished fourth in the C.B.L. standings behind Urbana, Worthington, and Whitehall. Arlington tallied a 7-7 record in this competition, splitting with all of their opponents except Grandview whom they beat twice, and Urbana, to whom they lost twice.

Although their games are generally regarded as merely an added attraction of the varsity games, the reserves managed to provide some exciting entertainment of their own. The second Grandview game, which was played at Arlington on February 3, saw the Bears spill the Bobcats in a double-overtime sudden-death thriller. John Ashby dropped the winning point (a free throw) and received a free ride to the locker room, via his teammates' shoulders.

Tom Mansfield ended up the season as the Bears' leading scorer, but was closely followed by John Ashby, Phil Williams, and Bill Robb.

#9: I Will See That our Country moves!

Under the leadership of Coach Richard Larkin and Co-Captains Les Heitger and Bob Miller, the Cross Country team compiled an admirable record of nine wins and three losses.

In addition to the dual meets the Harriers made an excellent showing at the annual Bowling Green Relays. This event has always been marked by some of the toughest competition the state has to offer.

One of the most memorable happenings of the Bears' season was their fine third-place finish at the District Meet. Ron Kock, 12th; Bob Miller, 14th; and Les Heitger, 18th paced U. A. as they finished behind Worthington and Linden.

Les Heitger, in a meet against Gahanna-Lincoln, set a new all-Arlington record on the Northam Park course with a time of 10 minutes and 18 seconds.

The Fall Sports Banquet, held at the Ohio Union, brought the announcement of next year's Co-Captains -- Ron White and Jeff Laylin. Bob Miller received the Most Outstanding Runner Award and Les Heitger was given the Johnny Hornet Award for finishing first the greatest number of times.

Congratulations to "Larks" and all the members of the squad for their fine performances.

Swimming

Captain Russ Morgan, Coach Dick Russell, Captain Fred Heer.

The 1960-61 swimming team, under the leadership of Coach Dick Russell and his able assistant George Patton, completed one of its most successful seasons.

Co-Captains Russ Morgan and Fred Heer led prospective team members in a vigorous weight-training program during the fall, all in preparation for the first meet -- the Kent State Relays. Although the Bears were not in top condition and did not fare so well, a very interesting time was experienced by all on the over-night trip!

The tankers finished with a 10-4 dual meet record, including a narrow loss to soon-to-be-state-champion Canton-McKinley. All championships did not escape from U.A.'s clutches, however, as for the sixth straight year they swam off with the first place trophies in the City Relays and Central District Meet.

The state swimming meet brought a fifth place finish to Arlington and all-American honors to Russ Morgan, Rick Smith, Lytle Johnson, and Doug Welch (members of the record-breaking free-style relay team).

The annual banquet was held at Presutti's Villa where Lytle Johnson and Doug Welch were named as next year's co-captains. Here, also, Athletic Director Marv Moorehead described the squad as "the best swimming team in the state, without a pool of their own!"

The sight of red-eyed swimmers (non-goggle owners) walking through the halls at school will probably be one of the lasting images held by many Arlington students.

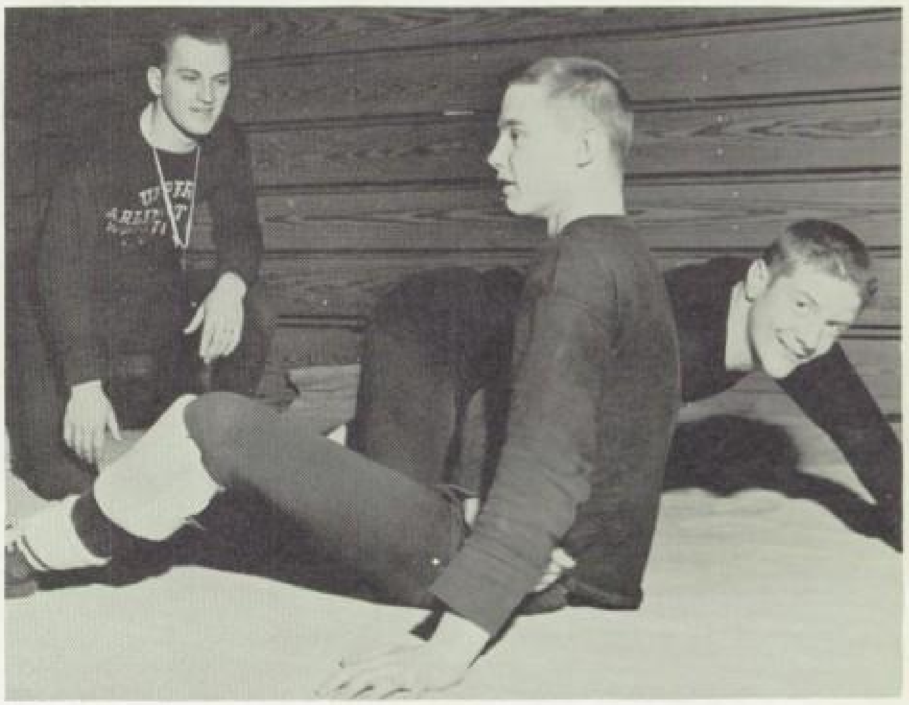
Wrestling

November 21, 1960, found seventy-seven members of wrestling squad huffing and puffing their way through Coach Jerry Hooper's conditioning exercises. These daily workouts, which included running laps around the school block (about one mile), soon reduced the team's numbers to thirty-seven.

The grapplers, who played one of the roughest schedules an Arlington team has ever faced, compiled an admirable 5-6 won-lost record in dual meets. In the tournaments, consistency was the keynote, as the Bears placed fourth in all they entered. The Worthington Invitational (with eight teams competing), the Western Section (twelve teams), and the Central District Meet (twenty-one teams) all ended with Arlington on the fourth rung of the ladder.



Coach Jerry Hooper, Captain Dave Greegor, and Captain Dennis McKee.

ROW ONE: Ralph Orlando, Chet Rapp, Bob Walker, Dave Greegor, Bill Cool. ROW TWO: Coach Jerry Hooper, Bill Yardley, Dennis McKee, Jerry Wehr, Jerry Truster, Dave Hall.

The season was highlighted by the first place finishes of Dennis McKee and Doug Hartman in the District, which entitled them to participate in the State Meet.

The year's wrestling activities were brought to a close at the Grandview Inn on March 6, when co-captains Dennis McKee and Dave Greegor announced Doug Hartman and Bob Holdsworth as their successors. Dennis McKee, for the 105 points he scored in his matches, received the D. O. Jones Trophy for being the top scorer. Bill Cool, who never missed a practice session during the four-month long season, received the Outstanding Team Member Award.

OFFICERS: President, Claudia Gidcomb; Vice-President, Betsy Dawson; Secretary, Alice Carson; Treasurer, Carol von Haam; Social Chairman, Karen Thorne; Publicity Chairman, Carol Sain; Adviser, Mrs. Jane Wilson.

PURPOSE: to further physical well-being through organization of sports and recreational activities which develop leadership and friendship.

Members of G. A. A. have interests and activities other than sports. This was the second year G. A. A. sponsored Co-Rec Night and like last year's, this year's was a big success. The annual "Bermuda Ball" was given in March.

To end the year G. A. A. held a banquet in May to honor those girls who were active in the club and to announce next year's officers.

Sports Chairman

SHERRY FISHEL

This year the position of sports chairman was ably filled by Sherry Fishel. She made sure that the sport heads carried out their jobs. She also attended cabinet meetings and helped with the social functions of the club.

Hockey

The G.A.A. sports season began with hockey, one of the two major sports of the year. This year's hockey head, Gayle Beard, was responsible for obtaining officials for interscholastic games, and it was she who made up the schedule of the games.

GAYLE BEARD

Bowling

NOELLE LEWIS

Under the direction of sporthead, Noelle Lewis, girls interested in bowling formed teams and bowled once a week at Fiesta.

The team with the highest average and the individual with the highest game were given plaques at the end of the year.

Swimming

It was hoped that swimming could be continued this year, but even though sporthead Anne Lynn tried hard to find some place to swim, her efforts were of no avail.

ANNE LYNN

Archery

SANDY FITZGERALD

Archery, which is always a sign of spring sports, was headed by Sandy Fitzgerald.

Instruction was given after school to those who were interested. Some of them became very good shots, but it was a great effort for a lot of them to shoot the arrow so that it came close to the target.

Basketball

BONNIE HENRY

G.A.A. basketball, headed by Bonnie Henry, created a lot of enthusiasm again this year.

Intramurals, held after school, provided fun and experience for those participating.

Volleyball

JENNI GRIMES

This year volleyball enthusiasts formed teams and played ardently under the supervision of Jenni Grimes. When it was all over, the juniors won.

Softball

ARLINGTON
G.A.A.

JUDY DENTI

Softball, one of the spring sports, was under the leadership of Judy Denti.

Teams were formed and games were scheduled for after school. Quite a few girls participated in this fun-filled activity.

Tennis

ARLINGTON
G.A.A.

SUSIE SHARER

This spring tennis sporthead, Susie Sharer, arranged for matches to be held with other schools. Practices were held after school. A definite ladder was posted this year so that the girls could tell exactly how high or how low they were on the team.

Golf

PAT TAYLOR

There was more enthusiasm for golf this year. Sporthead, Pat Taylor, organized a golf team and scheduled interscholastic games.

Hockey Varsity

ROW ONE: Alice Carson, Karen Hobbs, Barb Brown, Susie Sharer, Carol von Haam, Peggy Erb. ROW TWO: Betsy Patterson (manager), Lynn Shreiner, Kathy Frost, Mary Lee Eigensee, Marcia Manning, Sherry Fishel, Bev Mayhan, Sandy Fitzgerald (manager).

Hockey, the first major sport of the year in G. A. A., began in September. Twenty-four girls were chosen to play on the varsity and reserve teams.

The reserves proved to be more powerful by winning all of their games, while the varsity won three, lost two, and tied one.

The season began on October 6 when the teams met St. Marys on the home field. Both teams started the year off right. The varsity won 2-0 and the reserves won 3-1.

A week later the Arlington teams beat Bexley on their own field. The varsity out-scored the Bexley varsity 3-2 and the reserves won 2-1.

After two straight victories and with their hopes up for another one, the teams ventured to Grandview. The varsity wasn't quite so lucky this time and the game ended in a 1-1 tie. But the reserves triumphed once again by winning 3-1.

The week of October 27 proved disastrous to the varsity when they met Worthington on their field and lost 2-1. The reserves kept up their unscarred record by winning 2-1.

When the teams met University they were all fired up and really played to win. The varsity won 4-1 to break their streak of bad luck, and the reserves won 3-1 and kept up their winning streak.

The season ended in a loss for the varsity and another victory for the reserves when they met Columbus School for Girls on our own field. The varsity lost 2-1, and the reserves reversed the score and won 2-1.

Even though the varsity tried hard it couldn't beat the spotless record of the reserves.

Junior and senior girls flocked to basketball try-outs last December. Fifteen girls from each class were chosen to form the varsity and junior varsity team.

The season opened with a 21-15 victory over Bexley; the junior varsity suffered an inauspicious 30-18 defeat. Next, the varsity snapped off an overwhelming victory over Eastmoor 34-6. West overpowered the varsity 30-20, but the junior varsity retaliated by defeating their opponents 19-16.

The traditional rival Grandview was upset twice when the varsity beat them 16-10 and the junior varsity won out by a score of 19-7. Although the varsity fought hard against Linden, they lost 18-16 in an overtime. The junior varsity, however, again retaliated by winning 30-0.

Worthington handed the varsity another loss by defeating them 17-9, but the junior varsity capped Worthington's junior team 19-8.

In their last games of the season both the varsity and the junior varsity lost to North 20-9 and 22-9 respectively.

The year ended with three wins and four losses for the varsity and four wins and two losses for the junior varsity.

High scorers for the varsity were Sue Nelson and Karen "Meadowlark" Hobbs. "Scoring giants" for the junior varsity were Lynn Musgrave and Sharon Stark. Guards of both teams are to be commended also. Official scorer was Pris Daugherty and official timer was Ann Kreiger. Both girls traveled with the teams to all games.

A banquet honoring the teams was held at the Ohio Union March 14 to climax and end the season.

The fifteen sophomore girls who finally composed the reserve basketball team had to work (dribble) their way through a difficult tryout.

The girls were divided into team "A" and team "B" when they played their games with University, North and Worthington. Although at the end of most of their games the scoreboard read in favor of the opponent, the friendship and experience gained made it all worth while. These girls are all looking forward to playing on the junior varsity team next year.

All three teams were greatly indebted to Pris Daugherty and Ann Krieger for ably keeping track of the points, the fouls, and the time.

INEXPERIENCE COUNTS!!!

Last fall found the new delegates to this convention new and untried, but full of enthusiasm and fresh ideas for the new frontier. Under the capable leadership of such committee chairmen as class president, Bill Robb; vice-president, Steve Walker; secretary, Jean Burr; treasurer, Carolyn Fahrbach, the class engaged in many projects. The delegates selected twelve committeemen to represent them on the Student Council: Jean Burr, Jean Carson, Chuck Durrant, John Grout, Linda Loving, Phil Macaluso, Bill Nuhfer, Jeff Schofield, Barb Shoop, Mary Sullivan, Denis Trover, Steve Walker.

Understanding the importance of party finance, the delegates captured second prize in the P.T.A. contest and organized several of the classic bake sales. Ever alert to the new, the delegates convened and came forth with a spring-cleaning service for the community.

During party recess the delegates found time for sports, activities, and clubs. The feminine contingent formed its own club and appropriately christened it A.I.M. The masculine members of the delegation soon found it necessary to form Tigris Chows.

True to tradition the delegates expressed their best to the candidates by decorating Senior Hall - hopeful that they, themselves, would someday be candidates.

GOING UP!
JUNIORS

This year the members of the junior class were the party workers who supported the school with their spirit and worked to prepare for their nomination as seniors. Led by their officers and campaign managers, Emerson Berry, president; Jim Walker, vice-president; Gayle Beard, secretary; and Noelle Lewis, treasurer, the class proved their loyalty by winning first prize for the best float in the homecoming parade and as always they sold the concessions at the football games. Their Christmas bake sale was a big success and each homeroom had a bake sale the second semester.

The juniors' big project of the year was the Jr.-Sr. headed by co-chairmen Noelle Lewis and Paul Drake.

The junior delegates during the school year of 1960-1961 gave every evidence of becoming worthy candidates for graduation in 1962.

First Grade

It was a bright September day in 1948 that the members of the class of 1961 first came as kindergarteners to Barrington Road School. At that time there were three classes, two in the morning and one in the afternoon. As always, it snowed that winter. Our teachers were plagued with bunglesome snowsuits and those boots we never could get on by ourselves. By the time we were first-graders we had progressed a bit -- now we had desks and school supplies! Sharing period was the most fun -- next to recess, of course. After recess we took naps on rugs -- it seemed as if we'd never get away from naps!

Second grade was a great year for the mathematical genii of our class -- we learned to add and subtract. We even played a form of baseball with those ubiquitous flash cards. Third-grade art classes were something to be remembered -- we made clay ashtrays for our parents, paper chains for Christmas and all sorts of drawings.

Third Grade

Ohio was 150 years old when we were fourth graders so naturally we had to get into the celebration. We had a pageant with costumes and dances along with our study of Ohio history. In the fifth grade a new choir was organized for fifth and sixth graders. We had tryouts and some of our better musicians joined this group. When we were sixth graders, the choir's Christmas production was "The littlest Angel" with Alice Carson in the starring role. While the students at Barrington sang in the choir, the fad at Tremont was tumbling. Both boys and girls learned the finer points of this sport.

When students from both Barrington and Tremont converged at the high school, we had grown from three to seven sections. It seemed pretty special to be part of the high school. Study halls in the auditorium were terrible, and we often had to sit in for an hour in the senior classrooms if the upper classes were having an assembly. Exams plagued us for the first time. We studied and felt our way through the first of a long series of examinations.

Eighth grade was a special year because it was our first at a real junior high. Science projects - - leaf and insect collections for most of us - - occupied a great deal of our time. The Cub Reporter came into existence that year with many of our students on its staff. Late that spring we held Student Council elections with Ray Roop victorious over Marty Fergus and Jane Mills to lead the student body for the next year. Our football team, headed by captains Kenny Wears and Bill Anthony, our basketball team, captained by Bill Beebe and Jack Newlon, and our track team with different captains each meet, had a good following led by our cheerleaders Carol von Haam, Bev Mayhan and Karen Thorne.

At Christmas time we had the annual Snow Princess Prom with Princess Debbie Berry and her court Anita Macaluso, Judi Young, Debbie Page and Bonnie Henry. Toward the end of the year all the freshmen took a trip to the high school to see our "home" for the next three years. The climax of junior high school was a recognition assembly where our ninth grade choir sang and many were recognized for their service and achievements.

The beginning of high school brought many new experiences including our Homecoming float -- "Bowl 'em Over." K.E.Y. and Y.E.K. came into existence complete with sweatshirts and pins. Our service to Columbus during the January flood brought us a citation which was presented at the honors assembly. Our booth at the carnival that year was by far the most popular and our boys became famous for their modeling of such "lovely" clothes. Tryouts for cheerleaders produced Carol von Haam, Alice Carson, and Karen Thorne to lead us for the next two years.

The beginning of our junior year found us selling coke, candy, hot dogs, and popcorn at the football games and working on our prize-winning float "Batter Bexley." The chairmen elected for the Junior-Senior were Mike Patton and Sarah Hays, who worked throughout the year for the memorable Teahouse of the August Moon. South Pacific took a great deal of time that year, and we will always remember the performances of Debbie Page and Fifi Reider as "Nellie." Near the end of the school year student council elections were held with George Wolfe winning over Mike Patton, Nick Krier, and Bob Walker.

Seniors

We began our senior year on the right foot, headed by our officers Bob Walker, president; Mike Patton, vice-president; Sarah Hays, secretary; and Jack Newlon, treasurer. Homecoming played a big part in our senior year as we built our memorable float, "Stomp the Heel out of 'Em," and planned and decorated for the Homecoming Dance.

Our senior class certainly had its share of beauty, brains, and brawn. The "beauties" were our Homecoming Queen Judi Young, and her court Debbie Berry, Sally Russel, Nancy Berend, and Bonnie Henry. Our "brains" were valedictorian Nick Krier and salutatorian Judy Graziani. The "brawn" of this year were our football captains, Jerry Truster and Bill Anthony; Cross Country captains, Bob Miller and Les Heitger; swimming captains, Fred Heer and Russ Morgan; basketball captain, Jack Newlon; wrestling captains, Denny McKee and Dave Greegor; track captain, Ron Clawson; baseball captains, Bill Beebe and Paul Durrant; tennis captain, Mark Reinhart; and golf captains, Bill Snyder and Bill Durrant.

We had many memorable events -- our senior party at Rathbone Ranch and of course the Bar None. It was a "Lost City," which was carefully planned and executed by Marcia Manning and Nick Waits. There are memories of more than just dances however. Those horrible term papers for instance -- not one, but two.

After thirteen years of work and play together, the class of 1961 followed Uppey down the final stretch.

We have presented the record. On the basis of past performance, we request that our candidacy for graduation be given careful and wise consideration. May you, our administrators and teachers, find us worthy of receiving diplomas.
